

Issue No. 1 of 15 January 2016

- The Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership provides an opportunity to address numerous barriers to trade
- The EU and the Philippines announce the launch of negotiations for a free trade agreement
- Food intended for sportspeople: the regulatory framework after 20 July 2016

Issue No. 2 of 29 January 2016

- The French Senate adopts an amendment to increase taxes on palm oil significantly
- The EU files a dispute against Colombia over measures affecting imports of spirits
- The UK Royal Society of Public Health proposes ‘activity equivalent’ calorie labelling on food to tackle obesity

Issue No. 3 of 12 February 2016

- The US moves closer to implementing a seafood traceability programme to combat IUU fishing
- The EU Commission opens a public consultation on future measures to prevent dumped imports from China
- Novel foods and insect-based foods: the next steps

Issue No. 4 of 26 February 2016

- Geographical indications, ‘food fraud’ and the fight against ‘Italian sounding’ products
- Ecuador begins phasing out its controversial safeguard measures
- New EU rules on veterinary medicines: is ‘prevention-rather-than-cure’ sufficient to fight antimicrobial resistance?

Issue No. 5 of 11 March 2016

- Canada and the EU finalise their trade deal and include revised provisions on investment protection and investment dispute settlement
- The good, the bad and the ugly: recent developments that may affect international trade in palm oil
- CJEU: With respect to nutrition claims on mineral water, the calculation of total content must consider all of the chemical compounds of sodium

Issue No. 6 of 24 March 2016

- Comparing 'sin taxes': the real 'sin' is to discriminate between 'like products'
- Regulatory cooperation and good regulatory practices – the 'secret stars' of the TTIP are slowly taking shape
- Seven EU Member States oppose 'hybrid' nutrition labelling schemes

Issue No. 7 of 8 April 2016

- The US Food and Drug Administration lifts the veil on biosimilar product labelling
- The WTO issues the Panel Report in European Union – Anti-Dumping Measures on Biodiesel from Argentina
- Glyphosate renewal process: MEPs urge the EU Commission not to renew authorisation

Issue No. 8 of 22 April 2016

- Bittersweet 'subsidies'? Brazil files a WTO dispute against Thailand's sugar regime
- The new EU 'conflict minerals' regulation is taking shape
- Are EU nutrient profiles still needed after the Dextro Energy judgment of the EU General Court?

Issue No. 9 of 6 May 2016

- Fighting Illegal Fishing: EU 'yellow carded' three more countries, delisted Sri Lanka and urged Thailand to take action
- The EU and Indonesia agree to formally launch negotiations of the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement
- Insect meal and the need for reform of EU feed legislation

Issue No. 10 of 20 May 2016

- Slow but steady: EU-Japan FTA negotiations move forward
- A new legislative framework looks poised to include agricultural emissions in the EU's reduction targets, but EU Member States still need to agree on how to do so
- MEPs renew call on the Commission for mandatory COOL of meat and milk in processed foods while some EU Member States already started to draft such measures

Issue No. 11 of 3 June 2016

- Not so Single Market – the EU Parliament calls for action against intra-EU non-tariff barriers
- The EU-New Zealand FTA: where things stand
- The new US 'Nutrition Facts' require food and business operators to indicate how much sugar has been added to their products

Issue No. 12 of 17 June 2016

- The EU and the Philippines kick off negotiations for a free trade agreement
- The European Commission finally presents its criteria to be used to identify endocrine disruptors in the field of plant protection products and biocides
- An update on Nutrient Profiles in light of the Dextro Energy case

Issue No. 13 of 1 July 2016

- Mixed feelings about 'mixed agreements': European Commission declares CETA an 'EU-only' agreement
- The trade law consequences of 'Brexit'
- Germany prompts the European Commission to define food suitable for vegetarians and vegans

Issue No. 14 of 15 July 2016

- France tries once again to single out palm oil: sustainable criteria vs. unsustainable fiscal policies
- An update on the harmonisation of EU customs infringements and sanctions
- France introduces mandatory COOL for milk and meat in prepared foods for a two-year test period

Issue No. 15 of 29 July 2016

- ASEAN is set to launch an internet-based mechanism to find solutions to intra-ASEAN cross-border trade issues
- The EU and the US again request WTO consultations with China in relation to Chinese export measures on certain raw materials
- A new round of EU duty suspensions and tariff quotas came into effect
- CJEU: NHCR applies to commercial communications to healthcare professionals, not only to final consumers

Issue No. 16 of 9 September 2016

- Politics, policy and trade law – A state of play of European trade negotiations in September 2016
- The first WTO panel reports involving Russia as respondent
- Food Standards Scotland's (FSS) strategy 2016 to 2021 - Scotland considers fiscal measures and advertising bans on 'discretionary foods and drinks'

Issue No. 17 of 23 September 2016

- The EU and Indonesia launch negotiations of the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement
- The WTO Appellate Body issues its Report in India – Solar Cells
- The UK Government announces 'clearer visual labelling' in the form of teaspoons of 'free' sugar

Issue No. 18 of 7 October 2016

- Calming troubled waters - Efforts to eliminate fishery subsidies and to combat IUU fishing for a more law-abiding, sustainable and balanced fisheries sector
- Divergent views remain on the US Food and Drug Administration's Draft Guidance on biosimilar product labelling
- A Swedish court rules that EFSA's reference values for vitamins and minerals cannot be used as upper limits in food

Issue No. 19 of 21 October 2016

- Arduous ascent to the summit – last minute efforts to save the CETA continue
- The impact of the CETA on Brexit and beef quotas

- EFSA's opinion on certain process contaminants in refined vegetable oils – explaining an oversimplified issue

Issue No. 20 of 4 November 2016

- Towards the conclusion of the Environmental Goods Agreement
- Further steps to regulate 'trans fats' in foods in the EU
- The return of the bitter-sweet EU chocolate controversy?

Issue No. 21 of 18 November 2016

- Ecuador joins the EU-Colombia/Peru Free Trade Agreement
- Towards plain packaging of beer, wine and spirits? - Countries around the world are introducing new labelling measures for alcoholic beverages
- Codex discussions on 'front-of-pack' nutrition labelling in the context of relevant developments in Latin America and the EU

Issue No. 22 of 2 December 2016

- Not seeing the forest through the trees? The European Parliament is preparing a resolution on palm oil and the deforestation of rain forests
- The EU agrees on how it will regulate the importation of conflict minerals
- The relationship between public health and IP rights: Chile prosecutes Kellogg's, Nestlé and Masterfoods for using cartoons aimed at children

Issue No. 23 of 16 December 2016

- EU trade policy and trade negotiations revisited - Belgium's Walloon region proposes a new approach to the negotiation of the EU's trade agreements
- The European Commission reinforces its push to grant individual EU Member States the option of restricting or prohibiting the use of genetically modified food and feed
- Belgium introduces new rules on maximum levels for vitamins, minerals and trace minerals in food supplements and fortified foods

FratiniVergano specializes in European and international law, notably WTO and EC trade law, EC agricultural and food law, EC competition and internal market law, EC regulation and public affairs. For more information, please contact us at:

FRATINIVERGANO
EUROPEAN LAWYERS

Rue de Haerne 42, B-1040 Brussels, Belgium Tel.: +32 2 648 21 61 - Fax: +32 2 646 02 70
www.FratiniVergano.eu

Trade Perspectives® is issued with the purpose of informing on new developments in international trade and stimulating reflections on the legal and commercial issues involved. Trade Perspectives® does not constitute legal advice and is not, therefore, intended to be relied on or create any client/lawyer relationship.

To stop receiving Trade Perspectives® or for new recipients to be added to our circulation list, please contact us at:

TradePerspectives@FratiniVergano.eu